GOSPEL REFLECTION

In today's Gospel Jesus offers us a peace the world cannot give. This in absence of war or conflict. It does not mean the peace of two or more people who have reconciled and live in harmony. Neither does it mean the peace one has when it is possible to relax and to take a break from work. After all, there is no need to have faith in Jesus to experience any of these. God in Jesus became human. In His death and resurrection Jesus healed the rift that separated us from the source of our true peace God the father. If we have true faith in the Lord, we will have deep down, a sense of wholeness and calmness. Even if we experience challenges and conflict, true faith, will still have the peace the world cannot give, Gods love.
God Bless. Fr Pat
