GOSPEL REFLECTION

In today's Gospel Jesus begins his teaching with the sermon on the Mountain. Today's Gospel is the beginning of that teaching. Moses, when he was leading the Hebrews through the desert to the land God was giving them, said there would be a greater prophet coming after him who will give them what he himself had heard from God. The teaching God gave his people through Moses was to the people as a whole. By obeying his teaching he would be their God and protect them as his chosen people, sadly they failed. Jesus the new prophet, is now updating this law starting with the Beatitudes. He is calling us individually into a relationship with him. We see how much the relationship means to him by his death on the cross and his resurrection. As I carry on listening to his teaching over the next few weeks how will I respond? Only I can decide that.

God bless. Fr Pat

THANK YOU FROM WITNEY FOOD BANK

On behalf of the trustees of Witney and West Oxfordshire Food Bank, I am writing to say a huge thank you for your donations that you made to us during the month of December. The total for your donations was 12.3kg, which of course goes such a long way in being able to help individuals and families who are experiencing food poverty.

December is obviously a really hard time for families with Christmas taking place too, and the little extra goodies that were contained in your donation, allowed them to have some special treats alongside their ordinary parcel.

We are so grateful for your continued support. Regards Faye Carrick

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MY FUNERAL MASS

Some parishioners have asked about how to plan for their funerals. There is a leaflet on the Diocese website which you can save and fill in on your computer or print off and fill in by hand. My Funeral Mass | Birmingham Diocesan Trust

This will guarantee that you will receive what is your right as a member of the Catholic Church and make it easier for your family and friends to make arrangements for your funeral at what will be a sad and difficult time. Printed copies are available in the Narthex, please contact the church office on 01993 702661 if you need any further paper copies.

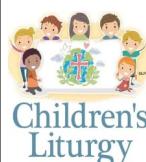

Fr Pat.
