GOSPEL REFLECTION: THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

In today's Gospel we hear John declaring Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. Perhaps he saw the Holy Spirit descend on Jesus at His Baptism and realised he was the chosen one of God and that meant for John the Baptist that his ministry was over. He was no longer needed. All His followers would now go to Jesus. Yet, he accepted that fact willingly. He had no feelings of resentment or jealousy. It did not matter to him that he seemed no longer important. His value as a human being lay in being loved by God. How other people saw him did not matter to him. He did not need to compare himself with other people to judge his own worth. The Lord loved him no less just because the Messiah had finally come. If, like John we can accept ourselves that nothing matters but God's love which will always be there it will give us great freedom. Never again need we worry about how people see us or even compare ourselves with others. It is a total waste of time.

God bless. Fr Pat

THANK YOU

I would like to say a big thank you to all involved with the visit of the Archbishop last weekend. From preparing the itinerary, attending the meetings, contributing in the meetings and providing refreshments. Also to those who helped to feed the Archbishop, left to me he would not be very well! I wish to say a personal thank you as I felt very much supported by the Parish during the Archbishop's stay. We do not know what the future holds but I believe he was very happy with what he saw. Thank you again Fr Pat
